20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Performance Measurement Advisory Council will provide independent expert advice and recommendations to the Office of Management and Budget regarding measures of program performance and the use of such measures in making management and budget decisions. Council members will advise OMB regarding the particular processes and means utilized to assess the effectiveness of Federal programs and initiatives. Council members will draw upon their expertise in creating, implementing and evaluating performance measurement standards and will make recommendations regarding the types of measures and benchmarking systems that departments and agencies can employ most effectively to track program performance. The duties of the Council will be solely advisory. The Council will perform tasks, which may include conducting analyses and developing reports or other materials or reviewing work done by others, as requested by the OMB Director or a member of the OMB staff designated by the Director.
